

LIGHT · IDENTITY · FREEDOM · ETERNITY

What if there's more to life?

A GOSPEL TRACT · JOHN 10:10

WHAT IS REAL LIFE?

Everyone's chasing it.

We chase happiness, success, love—and still feel that something's missing. We're busy, connected, entertained... yet restless.

Jesus said it plainly: "I have come that they may have life, and have it to the full." Not just existing—truly alive.

He spells out that life in four words:

L Light — seeing clearly again

I Identity — knowing who you are

F Freedom — no more pretending

E Eternity — a hope that outlasts you

JOHN 8:12

L LIGHT

“I am the light of the world. Whoever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.”

Think of a small nightlight in a dark hallway. It's tiny, but the moment it's on the fear lifts—you can see, and you're not alone in the dark.

Life without Christ is like having that nightlight and never flicking the switch. We've big calls to make about love, work, and right and wrong, and we end up feeling along the wall in the dark.

Jesus doesn't just hand you a torch—He says He is the light, and that He is life itself, not life plus something else. Come to the source. Follow Him, and the darkness that never overcame Him won't overcome you either.

JOHN 1:12

I IDENTITY

"To all who received him... he gave the right to become children of God."

Your name is usually the first thing people learn—and soon it carries a reputation: the shy one, the funny one, the one who messed up. The world keeps writing labels on your tag.

But those labels only describe what you've done or how you come across. They can't tell you who you truly belong to.

Receive Jesus and you're adopted into God's own family—a child of God. Whatever your picture of "father" is, here's yours now: One who sees you, carries your burdens, and never once lets you down.

F FREEDOM

"If you hold to my teaching... you will know the truth, and the truth will set you free."

We all keep masks handy—the "I'm fine," the highlight reel, the accent we put on to blend in with whatever crowd we're in. Wear them long enough and you forget which face is yours.

The world sells a fake freedom built on half-truths. But Jesus says the truth sets us free—free not only from the pressure to perform, but from the grip of sin underneath it. And that truth is a Person: knowing Him, at home in His word until it shapes your whole life.

That's a freedom you can't buy or earn. Rule-keeper or rule-breaker, it's the same gift: you can drop the act, even mess up, and still come straight to Him—fully known and fully loved.

E ETERNITY

“For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life.”

Deep down we sense we’re made for more than a few short years under the sun—that there’s something past the horizon.

Jesus answers that ache with a gift: eternal life. Earthly presents run out, break, or grow old; this one never does—and it comes with a promise: “no one will snatch them out of my hand.”

Those hands made you. They were nailed to a cross for you—and they’re open to you now because He walked out of His own grave. Trust Him, and death turns into a doorway: a life that outlasts every sunset.

HOW DO YOU GET THIS LIFE?

You don't earn it. You receive it.

Here's the catch: none of this is a reward for being good enough. We've all turned and gone our own way—the Bible calls it sin, and it's what cuts us off from God.

So Jesus took our place—paying the full price on the cross and rising again to prove it was enough. Light, Identity, Freedom, Eternity: all of it is a gift. Nothing left to earn; just Him to receive.

You can talk to God right now—honestly, in your own words. Something like:

A PRAYER TO START

“God, I've been living my own way, and I'm sorry. Thank you for sending Jesus to die and rise again for me. I turn to you and receive Him—my light, my name, my freedom, my life. Amen.”

YOUR NEW LIFE STARTS TODAY

The old is gone. The new has come.

“If anyone is in Christ, the new creation has come: the old has gone, the new is here.”

— 2 CORINTHIANS 5:17

Got questions? Let's talk.

Prayed that prayer, or just curious? A great next step is reading John's Gospel—where all these verses live. And I'd love to chat—no pressure, no judgement.
