DEPARTURE • HOMESICK

How much longer?

Every parcel you tape shut to send home, every tear at the airport gate, every video call that ends with “I should get some sleep”—if you have ever lived and worked far from home, you know the weight of the word homesick.

Late at night, in a country that was never quite yours, you ask yourself: why does something still feel missing?

“For here we have no lasting city, but we seek the city that is to come.”

PART 1

The Deeper Homesickness

It isn't really about a place

Even when you finally fly home for a visit, that ache is still there. We try to fill it with savings and property—but the truth is, we are feeling a spiritual homesickness, because God made us to live in His presence.

“Come to me, all who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest.”

MATTHEW 11:28

THE HOME YOUR HEART IS SEARCHING FOR IS...

not a place,
but a Person.

And that Person is Jesus.

→ FLT JOHN 14:6

PART 2

Home Is a Person

Not a place, but Jesus

We have looked for our identity in money, in work, in other people—and only ended up weary. Here is the good news: Jesus left His home in heaven to come and bring you back. He died on the cross and rose again—He alone is the way back to the Father.

“I am the way, the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me.”

JOHN 14:6

→ FLT JOHN 14:2

PART 3

The Home With No Goodbyes

No more goodbyes at the airport

Jesus has prepared an everlasting home for everyone who trusts in Him—no time difference, the whole family of God together, and you face to face with Him.

"In my Father's house are many rooms... I will take you to be with me, that you also may be where I am."

JOHN 14:2-3
